Attacks Boy, Man and Little Girl in Crotona Park Section-Shot by Policeman.

A big black and white bull terrier. which bore all the outward signs of rables charged through Crotona Park The Great Corn Loosener of the Age., and surrounding streets in the Bronx to-day, attacked three persons-a boy, a man and a little girl-and terrorized thousands of persons for an hour before policemen cornered and shot him at 172d Street and Third Avenue.

> The dog belonged to Mrs. Emma Cook of No. 1820 Park Avenue, who says she had him chained up in he back yard. He broke the chain, jumped the fence and ran away out 9 o'clock this morning.

The dog first attacked Bernard the rescue. Then the dog ran into Crotona Park where he bit John Shanahan of No. 2542 Hughes Avenue, a park laborer. Later the dog attacked six-year-old Isabella Giovanelli, of No. 1521 Fulton Avenue, but her clothing protected her and she escaped with a slight scratch.

The three victims of the dog were treated at the Health Department Station at Third Avenue and St. Paul's Place. The carcass of the dog which was shot by Policeman Ohm, was sent to the Health Department for examination to determine if he was suffering from rables.
